MEN'S MISSION

OPENS TO LARGE

Last evening at St. Mary's church he mission for the men of the parish to last one week opened before a congregation that tested the seating capacity of the edifice. Rev. Father Moran delivered a powerful and eloquent sermon on the relations between life and death. There was much food for reflection in the instructive dis-ibly impressed. This morning at the 5 o'clock mass Rev. Father Walsh preached on the importance of a thorough examination of conscience. There will be services each evening of this current week at 7:45 and every morning the mission n.ass will be at 5 a. m. with a special mass at 7:45 with instruction for the children.

ARRESTED FOR VIOLATION OF A CITY ORDINANCE

The anti-tuberculosis society is try-ing to prevent expectoration on the sidewalks. Special Policeman Stanton has been employed by the society to patrol the city and arrest all violators of the law which governs this prac-tice. The vicinity of the shops has been the principal field of operations of those guilty of the filthy practice Around the doors of every one of the targe factories in the city and on the sidewalks of the vicinity where the men congregate before they go to work are daily found disgusting evidences of the general contempt for cleanliness. Special Officer Stanton yesterday warned 112 men on Main street. On Saturday he made an arrest at the shop of the Bridgeport Brass company after warning 36 men. The victim at the brass shop was Frank Presty and his case was nolled in the city court on Saturday. This morning the officer appeared at the Grapho-phone shop at 6:30 and warned the men there to desist from the disgusting practice. Joe Holwick persisted in spitting on the walk after he was warned and was placed under arrest He resisted fiercely and the officer was obliged to use force to get him to the second precinct station. In the city court this morning Judge Wilder fined Holwick ‡3 and costs for resistance but nolled the charge of spitting on
